Combat Intelligence Analysis: [ ]

- The task force met on 13 December to discuss a draft DoD/OSD memorandum detailing the ongoing activities within DoD to support the intelligence needs of theatre commander. The NSA representative informed the group that he had the benefit of a one-on-one conversation with General Faurer. The DIRNSA is anxious to ensure that the best possible coordination is being developed at all levels in planning tactical intelligence support for theatre commander so that national perspectives are being fully considered.
- The task force discussion which ensued disclosed that: The three disciplines involved in DIA 's tactical intelligence support architecture are not operating from a common methodology; and the program managers who have to verify national intelligence requirements are not being brought into the planning stages at an early enough stage.
- The DIA representative will develop a paper addressing the issues mentioned above which may well form the basis for some specific recommendations for the working group's next meeting.

CBW Intelligence Subcommittee: [ ]

- Two meetings of the CBW Subcommittee were held during the week.
  - On 12 December the group met to hear a two-hour presentation on the CBW-associated missions, functions, responsibilities, and resources of Dugway Proving Ground.
  - On 17 December the group was briefed by CIA and DIA on the CBW functions and resources of the two organizations. As a result of concerns expressed during the visit to CRDC, a representative from FSTC was in attendance to discuss the sample collection team, specifically, the collection guidance provided to the team, the condition of samples received, the sample descriptions provided, and the time lag from collection to receipt by the labs.

25X1 Terrorism Projects:

- A new NIO/CT will be identified sometime before the end of January. Dave announced via FLASHBOARD on 18 December that Charlie Allen is being actively considered as a replacement; however, Charlie's current office is resisting his reassignment, so the decision is far from final.
- The arrival of a new NIO/CT makes our working group report on counterterrorism very timely. In many respects it constitutes an agenda for the incoming NIO/CT. The content of that report currently appears sound; however, problems need to be ironed out regarding its format and level of detail.  wants to discuss this matter with you.
